K-STATEHD.TV

K-State Athletics launched an exclusive digital, high-definition network on August 30, 2011, known as K-StateHD.TV, that provides a worldwide connection to Kansas State University and K-State Athletics. It establishes the university as an international leader in programming, accessibility and exposure.

The milestone joint project between K-State Athletics and the university maximizes the national exposure for both the university and athletics programs, and it is valuable to K-State volleyball as the site to watch all home matches.

GENERAL MEDIA INFORMATION

AHEARN FIELD HOUSE

Ahearn Field House, the home of K-State volleyball, is located on the southwest part of the Kansas State University campus. Media members should use the southeast entrance of Ahearn Field House, where a pass list will be located for all home matches. Media seating will be available in the center-court area of the balcony at the south end.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media attending K-State volleyball home matches must request access prior to attending a match. Requests, which can be made via email to the volleyball communications contact, should be received no later than two days prior to a match. Access is granted to working media only. No physical credentials are issued; a pass list with names of media members will be located inside the southeast entrance of Ahearn Field House no later than one hour prior to the match start time.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interviews with K-State student-athletes and coaches must be arranged through the Athletics Communications office. Please contact the communications contact for K-State volleyball to set up an interview. Home and cell phone numbers for student-athletes will not be given to the media, although student-athletes will grant phone interviews by other means.

Coach Suzie Fritz is available for interviews during the mornings on weekdays. Fritz will talk to reporters approximately 15 minutes after the end of each match.

Select student-athletes will be available after a match as well, following Coach Fritz's addressing of the media.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photography access is limited to daily newspapers, wire services and special periodical publications. No flash photography is permitted and strobe use must be approved in advance. Photographers are required to stay behind the marked areas around the playing area.

PRACTICES

K-State volleyball typically practices from 2:30-4:30 pm at Ahearn Field House on weekdays. The practices are open but check in advance with the volleyball communications contact as to the team's availability because of conditioning sessions and required days off.

SUZIE FRITZ HEAD COACH

17TH SEASON | FLORIDA ATLANTIC, '94 | CLAY CENTER, KAN.

CAREER RECORD: 316-178 (.640)

Since taking the helm of the program in 2001, Suzie Fritz has established K-State volleyball as not only a contender in the Big 12 but also the nation. A Kansas native and part of the program since 1997, Fritz is K-State's winningest coach and has helped the program reach the NCAA Tournament 16 times, including 12 as the head coach.

Fritz has accumulated 316 career wins in 16 seasons and led the Wildcats to being nationally ranked in 11 different campaigns. She has a 167-129 (.564) record in Big 12 action, with the 167 wins ranking third among Big 12 teams since 2001. Fritz helped lead the Wildcats to their first and only Big 12 title in 2003 when the nationally-ranked Cats were 18-2 in conference and 30-5 overall.

From an individual standpoint, Fritz has helped guide eight Wildcats to 13 All-America honors, including the program's only three-time honoree in recent Wildcat setter Katie Brand. Brand was one of the four Wildcats that also earned All-Big 12 awards in 2016, bringing the total to 44 under Fritz.

ATHLETE HONORS UNDER FRITZ
16 All-America honors
21 All-Region selections
43 All-Big 12 selections
45 Big 12 Player of the Week awards
22 Academic All-District selections
112 Academic All-Big 12 distinctions
4 Academic All-American accolades

The Wildcats have enjoyed great success in the classroom in addition to on the court. K-State has earned the most Academic All-Big 12 honors in conference history, including 112 since Fritz was named head coach in 2001. The Wildcats have also earned the prestigious AVCA Academic Team Award (3.3 team GPA or higher) 12 times under Fritz's direction, including in each of the last five years. JuliAnne Chisholm and Cari Jensen have combined to earn four Academic All-American honors under Fritz while the Wildcats have accumulated 20 Academic All-District distinctions, including recent Wildcats Brand and Kersten Kober notching that achievement in 2015 and 2016. Kober was also named Big 12 Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2015, the first recipient of the award in program history.

The 2016 season saw both Fritz and the K-State program reach new milestones. In a four-set victory over Mississippi State at Ahearn Field House on September 9, Fritz notched career win No. 300 while the program collected all-time win No. 800. Achieving a national ranking as high as No. 23, the Wildcats had their 12th 20-win season under Fritz with a top-four finish in the Big 12 for the second straight season.

The senior-laden squad earned their third straight NCAA Tournament appearance - and fifth in six seasons - as a quartet of senior starters propelled K-State to the No. 14 national seed, earning the right to host the first two rounds. After a first-round sweep of Lipscomb, the Cats played an all-time match against Ohio State in the second round. After dropping the opening two sets to the Buckeyes, K-State stormed back to force a fifth before missing a trip to the Sweet Sixteen by two points. It was K-State's 17th all-time NCAA Tournament appearance and 12th under Fritz.

Last year's team graduated six seniors, including starters Brand, Kober, Katie Reininger and Brooke Sassin, but saw the emergence of underclassmen such as Elle Sandbothe and Bryna Vogel. Sandbothe was selected to the Big 12 All-Freshman team while Vogel earned second-team honors from the conference. Vogel had a breakout season, being named Big 12 Offensive Player of the week and all-tournament team in three different non-conference tournaments as well as taking home MVP of the Arkansas Invitational.

The 2015 team featured no seniors as it relied on its core group of juniors to lead it to the 12th winning season in Fritz's tenure. While Brand finished as one of the top setters in the country, libero Kober helped the Wildcats lead the Big 12 in digs, a first for the program since 2002. Reininger and Sassin, meanwhile, picked up All-Big 12 Second Team honors with Reininger leading the team in blocks and Sassin logging the first Double-300 campaign by a Wildcat outside hitter since 1999.

Conversely, several underclassmen were forced to have prominent roles, with sophomore Bryna Vogel playing all six rotations for the first time in her career and the freshman duo of Macy Flowers and Alyssa Schultejans making an impact in their first years. Flowers and Schultejans were All-Big 12 Freshman Team recipients, making them the first pair of K-State teammates to earn all-freshman honors in the same season and setting the tone for future campaigns.

Fritz turned in one of her better coaching seasons in 2014 as K-State, despite boasting one of its youngest teams in recent history, used its steady mix of youth and veteran leadership to reach the NCAA Tournament for the 15th time in school history. The trip to the postseason, which ended in the first round against No. 20 Utah, capped a campaign in which the Wildcats went 22-9 and saw three players exhibit All-Big 12 performances. Freshman Kylee Zumach led the way as she was unanimously voted Big 12 Freshman of the Year, the first in school history, as well as All-Big 12 First Team and All-Big 12 Freshman Team. Brand, an All-Big 12 Freshman Team selection in 2013, joined Zumach on the First Team while senior Natali Jones, who was among the Big 12 leaders in blocks all season long, was named an honorable mention. Zumach and Brand - who both earned All-American honors - along with Katie Reininger (honorable mention), were also named to the AVCA Midwest All-Region Team, with Zumach earning all-region Freshman of the Year honors, another program-first, as well.

The Wildcats may have had standout individual performances surface at the end of the year in the form of postseason awards, but the group of 14 underclassmen and four seniors helped the 2014 team as a whole rebound to previous K-State standards. The regular-season wins, overall and in conference, were the most for the Wildcats in six years while the resiliency expressed by the team all year long helped them tie the program-record for most comeback wins (8) and best road/neutral record (13-5). The team had only seven returning letterwinners from the previous year, but under Fritz and coaching staff's watch, the Wildcats laid the groundwork for the young team to compete at a high level for years to come.

The 2012 season featured the Wildcats' ninth trip to the NCAA Tournament with Fritz as the head coach. K-State compiled 21 wins in the regular season, highlighted by victories over ranked opponents Minnesota (No. 10), Dayton (No. 20) and Iowa State (No. 22). The Wildcats started the season 12-0 and even broke the school record for consecutive sets won when they captured 23 straight sets. The streak started with the fourth set against Oregon State on August 25 and lasted eight matches until K-State dropped the first set in the win against Minnesota on September 14. In non-conference play, the Wildcats won 11 of its possible 13 regular season matches in straight sets.

In 2011, K-State ended a two-year NCAA Tournament drought in thrilling fashion. The Wildcats won four of their final six matches, helping them earn a trip to Lincoln, Nebraska for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament. After dispatching Wichita State in straight sets in the first round, the Wildcats were left to face the No. 2 team in the country, Nebraska, on its home court at the Nebraska Coliseum. The Wildcats pulled out a five-set upset of the Cornhuskers, the program's first win against a top-10 team since 2003, and moved on to the Sweet 16 for the second time with Fritz as the head coach. The victory against Nebraska was the first time the Huskers had lost an NCAA Tournament match at home in the first two rounds. It also ended a 16-year streak for the Cornhuskers in which they reached the regional semifinals. The Wildcats later lost to Pepperdine in Hawai'i in the regional semifinals, but nonetheless, K-State had another 20-win season in hand after finishing the year 22-11.

While the team enjoyed great success in 2011, Pelger, a middle blocker, became just the seventh different Wildcat in program history to earn All-America honors. The Olathe, Kansas native was named AVCA All-America Honorable Mention in 2011 - a feat she repeated in 2012 - as well as Volleyball Magazine Third Team All-American. Fritz has seen K-State earn nine All-America honors in her time as head coach and 12 All-America accolades since she was a K-State assistant coach starting in 1997.

Both the 2009 and 2010 seasons featured young Wildcat teams that fell short of a winning record, but still contained many highlights. In 2009, K-State upset No. 23 Texas A&M in a Big 12 match in Ahearn Field House, snapping a streak of 21 straight losses to ranked opponents. The Wildcats also won the BYU Nike Classic in 2009. During the 2010 season, Lauren Mathewson cemented her name in the K-State record books by finishing her career with 1,755 digs, which were second-most in program history. Also, Pelger became the first K-State freshman to be selected to the All-Big 12 Freshman team.

The 2008 K-State team reached the NCAA Tournament and finished 20th in the final AVCA Coaches Poll. The Wildcats finished third in the Big 12 with a 14-6 record and had to travel to Seattle for the first round of the NCAA Tournament, where they fell to Santa Clara in five sets. Three players earned All-Big 12 honors that season while Nataly Korobkova earned her second All-American honor when she was named to the AVCA All-America Third Team.

Behind Korobkova's first All-American season in 2007, K-State reached the NCAA Tournament once again, advancing to the second round. Korobkova, Fritz's fifth All-American as a head coach, had 498 kills in her first season, earning Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors, an All-Big 12 First Team selection and AVCA All-Region VI accolades in addition to the All-American nod. Similar to 2008, K-State finished third in the Big 12 with a 14-6 record in 2007.

The Wildcats have averaged a fourth-place finish in the powerful Big 12 under Fritz, but in the off-year of 2006, the team finished 10th. Key injuries also helped end the team's impressive run of postseason appearances.

In 2005, the team reached 20 wins for the seventh consecutive season, going 21-11, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the eighth straight year. K-State opened the campaign with the second 8-0 start in school history and first since the 1998 season. The Wildcats broke single-season school records for team total blocks (354.5) and team block assists (621). The squad was also successful in the classroom as K-State put eight Wildcats on the first and second teams of the Academic All-Big 12 teams.

The dominance at the net by the Wildcats would become a trend under Fritz's leadership. After setting the blocks record in 2005, K-State would post the second-best total blocks mark the following season and raise the bar again in 2007, tabulating a school-record 357.5. In terms of block assists, Fritz's teams all hold the top-five totals in school history, including a program-best 643 in 2007.

The direction of the program continued rising in Fritz's fourth year with another trip to the NCAA Tournament and 20 wins in 2004. The Wildcats finished with a 20-11 record and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to national powerhouse, the University of Southern California.

Fritz led the Wildcats to their first conference championship in school history in 2003, which was just her third year as head coach. K-State posted a 30-5 record and was a perfect 18-0 at home in Ahearn Field House. After losing the first two matches of the season, the Wildcats went on winning streaks of 12 and 16 matches en route to the conference title. K-State took both matches from conference power Nebraska, including just the program's second win on the road against the Cornhuskers in October.

Lauren Goehring and Gabby Guerre were both named All-Americans for their contributions during the 2003 season with Goehring earning first team honors and Guerre receiving an honorable mention. Goehring was also the school's first conference player of the year. The Wildcats had three players on the All-Big 12 first team with an additional two as honorable mentions.

Following her debut season, Fritz took the team again to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, a streak of post-season tournament appearances that would become five straight for the Wildcats under Fritz's leadership.

Three Wildcats were named first team All-Big 12 in 2002, marking the fifth year in a row - all under Fritz's tenure - that the program placed two players on the league's first team. The 2002 squad gained valuable experience with a number of players returning the next year for the most successful season in school history.

In her inaugural season as the K-State head coach, Fritz led the Wildcats to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and a 20-8 record. It was the highest winning percentage in school history (.714) by a first-year coach.

Also in 2001, Liz Wegner became the first player in K-State history to be named an All-American team twice in her career, as she was named an honorable mention All-American by Volleyball Magazine. Wegner joined fellow senior Lisa Mimick on the 2001 All-Big 12 First Team.

Fritz began her head coaching career at K-State as an interim head coach after Jim McLaughlin left the program shortly before the start of the 2001 season. After a 9-5 start in her first year, Fritz was named the program's permanent head coach. She took the reins from McLaughlin after serving as his top assistant for four years.

As an assistant coach for the Wildcats, Fritz was one of the chief architects of K-State's success from 1997-2000. She helped guide the program to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including its first appearance in the round of 16 of the tournament in 2000. In that span, the Wildcats posted a 103-52 (.665) overall record, including a 75-36 (.676) mark in Big 12 play. The program recorded four straight final AVCA/USA Today Top 25 finishes, including a then-program-best 16th ranking to conclude the 2000 season.

The team developed into a force in one of the nation's toughest conferences, finishing in the top five each year. The Wildcats had a then school-record second place finish in 2000 with a 14-6 record. As the head coach, Fritz would best that conference mark with a 16-4 record in 2002 and better it yet at 18-2 in the title year of 2003.

While an assistant at K-State, she helped produce two All-Americans - including the program's first in Dawn Cady in 1999 - along with three all-district selections, 11 All-Big 12 honorees, and 22 Academic All-Big 12 picks.

Prior to coming to K-State in 1997, Fritz spent two years as an assistant coach at NJCAA power Barton County Community College in Great Bend, Kansas. During her stay with Barton County, she helped guide the Cougars to a 111-14 (.888) overall record and a pair of top five finishes at the NJCAA National Tournament. She helped coach two first team All-Americans, two NJCAA All-Tournament picks, seven Region VI honorees, and five Academic All-Americans.

Fritz also played two years at Barton County from 1990-91, helping lead the Cougars to a 107-10 (.915) overall record and back-to-back Final Four finishes at the NCJAA Tournament as the team's starting setter. During her sophomore campaign, she was named the school's Most Valuable Player and to the All-Tournament team at the NCJAA Tournament. She was also named to the Volleyball Academic All-American team. She ranked ninth in school history in single-season assists with 1,219 set in 1991.

After two years at Barton, Fritz transferred to Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana-Monroe) for her junior season before transferring to Florida Atlantic for her senior campaign, finishing her playing career in 1994. She was named the Florida Atlantic's Most Inspirational Player and was an All-Tournament selection.

Upon earning a bachelor's degree in exercise science and wellness education from Florida Atlantic in 1994, she spent a year as an assistant coach at her alma mater before returning to coach at Barton County in 1995.

Fritz earned a master's degree in educational administration and leadership from Kansas State in August of 2002.

Fritz has also served as a coach for the USA Women's Volleyball program. She was appointed to a coaching role with the A2 team in 2006, and in 2009, she was named the A2 head coach, taking the team to a third-place finish at the USA Adult Open Volleyball Championship.

In 2013, Fritz and the K-State Wildcats represented the United States at the World University Games in Kazan, Russia.

She also served as the keynote speaker at the AVCA National Convention in 2008, presenting on various aspects of the game.

Fritz is not the first coach in her family. Steve, her husband, was an assistant coach for K-State track and field for 21 years and served as the head boys basketball coach at Riley County High School. Her parents and both brothers have served in some coaching capacity as well. Suzie's father, Larry Wiemers, spent more than 25 years as head football coach at Clay Center High School. Her brother, Dave, coaches football at Pittsburg State, and brother, Jon, at Southeast Missouri State. Suzie's mother, Sandi, has been involved in baton twirling for years and has held positions in her national and world organizations.

A native of Clay Center, Kansas, the former Suzie Wiemers was married to Steve Fritz on June 17, 2000. Steve Fritz, a member of the Kansas State Sports Hall of Fame, was a decathlete who placed fourth in the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games. The couple has two children, Thomas Jon (T.J.) and Jake.

JEFF GROVE ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

▸ 19TH SEASON ▸ AZUSA PACIFIC, '91 ▸ GOLETA, CALIF.

Jeff Grove has been an assistant coach at K-State for 18 of the last 20 years, with the 2016 season being his 15th consecutive season with the Wildcats since rejoining the program under Suzie Fritz in 2002. From helping orchestrate the rise of the program in the late `90s to maintaining its success with Fritz for the last 14 years, Grove has played a big role in K-State being one of the nation's top programs.

In his 18 years as an assistant, a stretch that includes 14 winning seasons, Grove has helped lead K-State to 356 wins, 14 NCAA Tournament appearances, and a Big 12 Conference title in 2003. As the defensive coordinator for the team, he has also coached a number of great defensive players, including two-time Big 12 Liberos of the Year Laura Downey-Wallace and Angie Lastra, First Team All-Big 12 and AVCA All-American Lauren Goehring, and Volleyball Magazine All-American and three-time First Team All-Big 12 Kaitlynn Pelger.

"It's very unusual to have the opportunity in the coaching business to work with someone as long as Jeff and I have. He is a man of strong character and commitment and is philosophically a great fit for K-State and the way we want to do things," Fritz said. "He has tremendous technical knowledge, understands training at a high level and is excellent with statistical measurement and analysis. I trust in and have the highest respect for him, both as a person and a volleyball coach."

In addition to the role as the defensive coach, the California native is the team's associate head coach, helping in the development of all phases of the program, coordinating and evaluating all statistical and video applications, creating opponent scouting reports and game plans, and organizing tape exchanges.

Grove has coached many outstanding defensive players in K-State history, including Lastra, the most prolific libero for the Wildcats. Lastra finished her career atop the career digs list with 2,032 - a record that still stands. She holds multiple school records, including digs by a freshman and senior as well as digs by any Wildcat in a season. Lastra was also the first libero to be named Big 12 Player of the Week before the conference created an award for both offense and defense.

Grove also helped develop libero Lauren Mathewson, who recorded three of the top-six performances in terms of digs in a single season in program history. Matthewson, a three-time Academic All-Big 12 selection, is second in school history in career digs.

That trend of great liberos has continued with recent graduate Kersten Kober, who finished her career with three consecutive 400-dig seasons - including 2015 when she had 500, the seventh-most by a Wildcat in program history. Kober, the 2015 Big 12 Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, amassed 1,554 career digs to place her fourth all-time in the K-State record books.

With the help of Kober, K-State led the Big 12 in digs per set in overall and Big 12 matches in 2015, a first for the program since Grove's first year back in 2002.

Grove's impact on the Wildcats' defense extends beyond the backline. At the net, K-State has been one of the stronger teams in the Big 12 under Grove's direction. In 18 seasons, Grove has helped the Wildcats hold opponents to a hitting percentage of .201 or below in a campaign 12 times. K-State has also finished among the Big 12's top three teams in blocks per set in eight of the last 15 seasons, including second in 2013 and 2014 as well as third in 2012.

During Grove's first tour in Manhattan, he was one of the original members of Jim McLaughlin's staff at K-State and a significant component in building the successful Wildcat program of today. He helped guide the team to a 60-34 overall record from 1997-99 and three consecutive bids to the NCAA Tournament. He was responsible for coaching the outside hitters, including K-State's first All-American Dawn Cady and former Team USA alternate Kim Zschau. He also assisted with team travel and recruiting.

Before joining McLaughlin's staff, Grove spent four seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Wyoming from 1993-96. During his tenure on the Cowgirl staff, the program posted a 54-64 (.458) overall record and a 25-33 mark in conference (WAC) play. In 1994, the Cowgirls posted a 17-13 record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. He began coaching at Wyoming in 1993 after a one-year stint as the lone assistant coach at Weber State in Ogden, Utah.

At Weber State, Grove helped the Wildcats to a 6-21 overall record and 5-9 mark in the Big Sky Conference in 1992. That season, the team placed fifth in the Big Sky and two members earned honorable mention all-conference honors. Following the season, he served several months as Weber State's interim head coach, managing the program in all facets until a new head coach was hired. While at Weber State, Grove also coached the Ogden (Utah) Junior Olympic volleyball program.

Grove began his coaching career at his alma mater Azusa Pacific while still an undergraduate. He served as the lone assistant coach for the women's team to help build the program into one of the top NAIA teams. He was also a player/coach for the men's club team. He also has experience at the Olympic level serving an internship with the U.S. National Volleyball Teams.

Grove has assisted with USA Volleyball over the years, including serving as an assistant coach for the Junior National A2 Team in July of 2008, working with some of the top young talent in the nation. In 2013, he was a floor coach at the U.S. Collegiate National Team tryouts in Colorado Springs.

A native of Goleta, California, Grove earned his bachelor's degree in communication with a minor in business administration from Azusa Pacific in 1991. He is married to the former Julie Abbott and the couple has two children, Kaitlyn and Jonathan.

TRENT SORENSEN ASSISTANT COACH

▸ 3RD SEASON ▸ BYU, '08 ▸ FONTANA, CALIF.

SORENSEN

Trent Sorensen, a veteran prep volleyball coach and former collegiate player at BYU, was named assistant coach with K-State volleyball in February 2015.

With the Wildcats, Sorensen assists with training as well as coordinates recruiting, utilizing his years of experience coaching in the club circuit of prep volleyball.

In two seasons at K-State, he has helped guide the Wildcats to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and top-four finishes in the Big 12 standings.

In his first season with K-State in 2015, he helped lead a group of Wildcats that had no seniors and a 1-3 start in Big 12 play to its best finish in the conference standings since 2011 and a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time over the last five years.

Prior to joining the Wildcats, Sorensen was a coach within the Tejas Volleyball club program, which is based outside of Fort Worth, Texas. Over his tenure with Tejas, he coached the 15- and 17-year-old age groups, including his last two years as the head coach of the top 15's team.

In addition to his club volleyball coaching experience, Sorensen played for the BYU men's volleyball team starting in 2003, but he accumulated most of his matches played from 2006 to 2008 after serving a church mission in Mexico City for two years. For his entire Cougar career, he played in 87 matches and tallied 337 kills and 202 blocks. During his senior campaign, he only missed only one set over the course of 30 matches and went on to rank second on the team in blocks and attack percentage, helping him earn all-league honorable mention and be a nominee for an AVCA All-America nod.

A native of Fontana, California, the former middle blocker played high school volleyball at Highland High School as well as club for the Santa Monica Beach Club Team.

Sorensen is married to the former Kim Wilson, who also played collegiately at BYU. The couple have four children: Aiden, Sienna, Reece and Gavin.

EMPORIA STATE, '02

Dan Cavender enters his 10th season as the K-State Head Strength & Conditioning Coach for Olympic Sports following six years on staff at his alma mater, Emporia State. At K-State he works with the volleyball, rowing, and track and field teams to improve the athletic performance of the Wildcats.

Whille at Emporia State, Cavender worked as the head strength and conditioning coach for football. He also served as an assistant football coach and recruiting coordinator as well as coordinated the team's travel at Emporia State.

Cavender received his master's of physical education from Emporia State in 2002 and prior to his time there, he attended Butler County Community College for two years where he also played football and was named an all-conference offensive lineman.

Cavender is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and a certified USA Weightlifting Sports Performance Coach. He and his wife Abby have two sons, Coy and Cash.

IAN CONNOLE

DIRECTOR OF SPORT PSYCHOLOGY > 5TH YEAR
WEST VIRGINIA, '13

Ian Connole, Ph.D., began working for K-State in January of 2014 and coordinates all sport psychology services for K-State Athletics. In his role, Connole helps student-athletes develop the skills to reach their goals and continue their pursuit of excellence with commitment, optimism, flexibility, and an all-around positive mindset.

Ian understands the demands of NCAA DI athletics and works with student-athletes to achieve success and reach their personal goals in this world of high expectations. He knows that all student-athletes have the ability to grow and develop personally, athletically, and academically; his job is to help them tap into that capacity and discover more effective ways of thinking, acting, and responding in order to enhance their performance and overall college experience.

Ian attended California State University-Fullerton (CSUF) for his Master's degree in Sporty Psychology/Performance Enhancement. At CSUF, he learned the art of sport psychology consulting from Dr. Ken Ravizza and Dr. Traci Statler, expert consultants to hundreds of collegiate, Olympic and professional teams. He then completed degrees in Counseling (M.A.) and Sport Exercise Psychology (Ph.D.) at West Virginia University under a faculty composed of leaders in the field of psychology. Ian taught several undergraduate courses in topics such as sport and exercise psychology, sport sociology, professional development, and physical activity and wellness. At each stop, Ian had the opportunity to work extensively with student-athletes and teams that were motivated to focus on the mental game, work hard, challenge comfort zones, and grow on and off the playing fields.

SCOTT TRAUSCH

SPORT DIETITION > 5TH YEAR
NEBRASKA, '11

Scott Trausch joined K-State Athletics in 2013 as the department's first full-time sports nutritionist. In his role, Trausch oversees the development of all nutritional protocols for all 16 varsity teams, including performance-fueling strategies, team and individual nutrition education, hydration and body composition testing.

Along with Executive Chief Pedro Lozada, Trausch coordinates and plans all meals served to student-athletes in the Ahearn Fund Student-Athlete Performance Table.

Prior to his arrival at K-State, Trausch spent a year and a half as the Coordinator of Football Sports Nutrition at the University of Nebraska, where he worked primarily with the football and baseball teams. Previously, Trausch served as the Interim Head of Football Sports Nutrition, and also served as a strength and conditioning intern and a sports nutrition intern for the Huskers from 2008 to 2012. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist, and a member of the Collegiate & Professional Sports Dietitians Association.

A Nebraska alumnus, Trausch earned degrees in dietetics and nutrition and exercise health science in 2011. Trausch is currently working towards his Registered Dietitian Certification while completing his Master's Degree through Eastern Michigan University.

He and his wife, Emily, reside in Manhattan.

GEN. RICHARD B. MYERS UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

MYERS

- 1ST YEAR
- KANSAS STATE, '65
- Retired Four-Star General, U.S.A.F.
  15th Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff

Retired U.S. Air Force Gen. Richard B. Myerswas inaugurated as the 14th president of Kansas State University on April 28, 2017 after being appointed as the interim university president by the Kansas Board of Regents in April 2016.

Myers has returned to his home state and alma mater to serve as Kansas State University President. He graduated from the university in 1965 with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering and joined the Air Force through K-State's ROTC program.

The native Kansan from Merriam loyally served his country and retired as a four-star general. From 2001-2005, he served as the 15th chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and was the principal military adviser to the U.S. president, secretary of defense, and the National Security Council.

As a command pilot, Myers logged more than 4,100 flying hours, including 600 combat hours. His significant commands included North American Aerospace Defense Command; U.S. Space Command and Air Force Space Command at Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado; Pacific Air Forces at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii; and the 5th Air Force at Yokota Air Base, Japan. He was appointed Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff by President Clinton in 2000. He has received numerous awards and decorations for his service, which include Legion of Merit, French Legion of Honor, and Presidential Medal of Freedom.

Myers also is a Kansas State University Foundation professor of military history and leadership. He received a master's degree in business administration from Auburn University in 1977. He also graduated from Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell Air Force Base in 1977, U.S. Army War College at Carlisle Barracks in 1981, and the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, where he completed a program for Senior Executives in National and International Security in 1991.

Throughout Myers' active duty and world travels, he continued relationships with his friends back home. He has provided instruction, insight, and inspiration to current students and the K-State community. In 2000, he presented the 118th Landon Lecture at Kansas State University, where he spoke about the military's role in international relations. Kansas State University named the military science building, home of the Army ROTC and Air Force ROTC programs, Gen. Richard B. Myers Hall, in honor of his service and dedication. He and his wife, Mary Jo, serve as co-chairs of the Kansas State University Innovation and Inspiration Campaign to raise $1 billion.

TAYLOR

GENE TAYLOR DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

▸ 1ST YEAR ▸ ARIZONA STATE, '80

Gene Taylor, who spent more than a decade leading North Dakota State to championship levels of success as its Director of Athletics before serving as the Deputy Athletics Director at Iowa, was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017.

"We are thrilled to have Gene, his wife Cathy and their two children join the K-State family," Myers said. "Throughout the process, Gene's experience as an athletics director and his national reputation as a respected leader and someone who has built and maintained tremendous relationships with his staff, coaches, student-athletes and donors stood out in what was an extremely talented pool of candidates.

K-STATE

A MODEL INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAM
- A world-class student-athlete experience.
- Value to our University, community and state.
- Integrity and transparency in matters of ethics, finance and NCAA compliance.
- Championship athletic performances.
- The best fan experience in the Big 12 Conference.

Taylor took the reins at North Dakota State in the summer of 2001 and immediately spearheaded a comprehensive evaluation of the Bison athletic department, all while successfully guiding the athletics program through the unpredictable waters of reclassification to NCAA Division I from Division II and securing conference affiliations for all 16 sports. The Bison are currently members of The Summit League, Missouri Valley Football Conference and Western Wrestling Conference.

Taylor also played an instrumental part of forming the Great West Football Conference in February 2004, an affiliation that gave the Bison football program an immediate home in Division I.

The success of the football program is well documented, highlighted by three-straight FCS National Championships in 2011, 2012 and 2013 under head coach Craig Bohl as the Bison quickly became one of the most revered football programs in all levels of college sports.

In addition to football, the NDSU men's basketball, women's volleyball, softball and women's golf programs all regularly qualified for NCAA tournaments, highlighted by softball advancing to the 2009 Super Regional, while the Bison totaled 53 Summit League team championships since 2009 under Taylor's guidance in addition to 62 Academic All-Americans, three NCAA Woman of the Year national qualifiers, four NCAA Elite 89 selections and 20 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners.

The NDSU athletics budget tripled from $5 million in Taylor's first year to $15 million, while the scholarship endowment grew to $11.2 million, and Team Makers booster club support tripled from $750,000 to $2.8 million.

In 2014, Taylor accepted the role of deputy athletics director at Iowa where he has been responsible for the administrative oversight of the department's day-to-day operations while also serving as the leading advisor to the Director of Athletics and the primary decision maker in his absence.

He also supervises and manages all the department's administrative units, capital projects as well as serving as the direct sport supervisor for field hockey, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's swimming and diving, women's soccer, baseball and wrestling. Taylor also has oversight of the football and men's and women's basketball programs daily operations, which included postseason and bowl travel coordination.

Twice Taylor has been recognized for his success by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. He was selected as the FCS Central Region AD of the Year in June 2008 and June 2012. Taylor received the Blue Key Honor Society Doctor of Service Award, one of the most prestigious honors an NDSU faculty member can be bestowed, in April 2012.

A student assistant to the associate athletics director in his undergraduate days at Arizona State University, Taylor arrived at NDSU after a 15-year stint at Navy (1986-2001) as an administrative assistant, assistant ticket manager, ticket manager, assistant athletic director for tickets and operations, and associate athletic director.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida.

He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have one daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared. Casey graduated from North Dakota State in December of 2016 with a degree in sports management and is pursuing a career in college athletics, while Jared will graduated in May from Iowa City High School and attends Northern State University in South Dakota where he plays football.
